Re: Oberstaller v. Bailey
Ravalli County Case No. DV-96-324

Dear Ms. Wiles:

In response to your letter of July 31, 2007, I have notified the two (2) attorneys involved. Mr. Swartley has since left the Datsopoulos firm. He is attempting to contact the Oberstallers who appear to still live here. Mr. Waters has moved to North Carolina. Alex Bailey died on March 27, 2007. It does appear the money levied on belongs either to the Oberstallers or Alex Bailey's Estate and the money should probably be transferred to the safekeeping of the Clerk of District Court until the rightful owner is determined by the Court.

Sincerely,

Eli C. Andrews

HAMILTON - Eli C. Andrews, 3-month-old baby of Ricky Andrews and Elizabeth Bezanson, passed away Saturday, March 31, 2007 at the Marcus Daly Memorial Hospital in Hamilton.

Arrangements are pending and will be announced by the Daly-Leach Chapel in Hamilton.

Alex H. Bailey

HAMILTON - Alex H. Bailey, Jr. died suddenly on March 27, 2007.

He was born Dec. 26, 1937 to Alex and Helen Bailey in Philadelphia, Pa. Most of his youth was spent in Biloxi, Miss., where he was a champion wrestler and boxer.

He was an avid hunter and fisherman who was always happiest in the high mountains of his beloved Montana.

While serving honorably in the army, he traveled widely in Europe. He spent his working life in the field of heavy construction and worked on projects across the United States and abroad. He came to Montana in 1963 and fell in love with its natural beauty. For many years he designed and built bridges across the Northwest.

A gourmet cook, a back-country guide and packer, a stout-hearted friend, Alex loved good food, good drink, a good smoke and a good fist-fight once in a while.

He had a great appetite for living and rarely if ever said no to the finer things in life. He never met a temptation he didn't like. He will be deeply missed by those who knew him well.

Alex leaves behind his wife and best friend of the past 30 years, Sharon St. John, and trusts in her care his beloved MacDuff, Angel, Precious and Crystal.

Alex is survived by two children, Chantal Gollott of Biloxi, Miss. and Alex H. Bailey, III of Portland, Ore.; two grandchildren, Gaby and Bella Gollott of Biloxi, Miss.

Also surviving are his brothers and sisters: Brian, Richard, Jonathan, David, CyAnn, Robin, Debbie and Darcy; and many nieces, nephews and cousins.

We wish him smooth seas and fair weather on the trip ahead.

A memorial reception will be held from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. Friday at the Hamilton Eagles Lodge.

Cremation is under the care of the Daly-Leach Chapel in Hamilton.

In lieu of flowers the family suggests donations to the Alex Bailey Memorial Fund, c/o Ravalli County Bank, P.O. Box 150, Hamilton, MT 59840.
